DECLARATION UNDER

37 C.F.R. §1.132

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. BOX 1450
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

We, the undersigned inventors, declare as follows:

1. We are among the co-inventors of the invention claimed in the above-captioned patent application (U.S. Patent Application No. 10/507,267, "the '267 application").
2. We are among the co-inventors of U.S. Patent No. 6,790,945, filed June 6, 2001, and entitled "Fluorescent Quenching Detection Reagents and Methods" ("the '945 patent").
3. With respect to the subject matter that is both disclosed in the '945 patent and also disclosed and claimed in the '267 application, we are the only inventors of the subject matter both disclosed in the '945 patent and also disclosed and claimed in the '267 application.
4. We alone conceived of the subject matter both disclosed in the '945 patent and also disclosed and claimed in the '267 application.
5. We further declare and state that Robert Dempcy is not co-inventor of the subject matter both disclosed in the '945 patent and also disclosed and claimed in the '267 application. The subject matter both disclosed in the '945 patent and also disclosed and claimed in the '267 application was derived from our inventive work.

Robert Dempcy did not have a role in the conception and discovery of the subject matter both disclosed in the '945 patent and also disclosed and claimed in the '267 application.

6. We hereby declare that all statements made herein of our own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.

VERMEULEN REGARDING THE DECLARATION EXECUTED ON JANUARY 9, 2008

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. BOX 1450
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

We, the undersigned inventors, state as follows:

1. We are among the co-inventors of the invention claimed in the above-captioned patent application (U.S. Patent Application No. 10/507,267, "the '267 application").

2. We are among the co-inventors of U.S. Patent No. 6,790,945, filed June 6, 2001, and entitled "Fluorescent Quenching Detection Reagents and Methods" ("the '945 patent").

3. We executed a Declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 on January 9, 2008, in response to the Office Action mailed August 16, 2007.

4. In the Declaration, we state that (i) Alexander A. Gall is not a co-inventor of the subject matter both disclosed in the '945 patent and also disclosed and claimed in the '267 application; (ii) The subject matter both disclosed in the '945 patent and also disclosed and claimed in the '267 application was derived from our inventive work; and (iii) Alexander A. Gall did not have a role in the conception and discovery of the subject matter both disclosed in the '945 patent and also disclosed and claimed in the '267 application. These statements were made based on our recollection at the time of execution of the Declaration.

5. Recently notebook evidence has established that Alexander A. Gall has made a contribution to the conception of the presently claimed invention. We were unaware of this piece of evidence at the time when we executed the Declaration on January 9, 2008. Our statements regarding the inventorship of Alexander A. Gall in the Declaration of January 9, 2008 were made without any deceptive intent on our part.

6. We state that Alexander Gall is among the co-inventors of the invention claimed in the above-captioned patent application (U.S. Patent Application No. 10/507,267, "the '267 application").

7. We hereby declare that all statements made herein of our own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.
